

MY HAPPY FLORENCE

Educational fun for kids in Florence

Turn the city into a classroom with this educational tour for kids. Discover Palazzo Davanzati, an antique Florentine home from the 16th century, furnished and decorated according to the lifestyle of the times. Followed up by Museo Galileo, a science museum that will appeal to kids 8+ especially with particular interests in science and math.

DURATION 3 hours

INCLUSIONS HALF DAY

- English-speaking licensed and kid-friendly guide at disposal for 3 hours
- Entrances to Palazzo Davanzati (only morning opening)
- Entrances to Museo Galileo
- Colors to draw
- Stop for gelato tasting

If you choose the full day experience you will go back in time as you enter the Stibbert Museum, located inside the Villa Montughi. The museum houses many ancient weapons and full sets of armor: one of the most spectacular rooms is definitely "The Ride," which displays a group of life-size horses and riders.

DURATION 6 hours
